

INTRODUCING

MADE for Health Justice

Virtual Information Session #1: June 28, 2022

Today's Agenda

Introductions

Background

Teams & Structure

Eligibility

What Makes a Strong Application

CFA Overview

Questions

Meet the National Coordinating Office

Jamila Porter
Principal Investigator

Joe Gibson
Senior Project Director

Maddie Kapur
Program
Officer

Meet Our Technical Assistance Providers

Vivian Singletary
Public Health
Informatics Institute

Jimica Tchamako
Public Health
Informatics
Institute

Erin Dowell
The Equitist

Icebreaker

1. Share your name, organization, and location in the chat
2. What activity, event, or experience this summer are you most looking forward to (or have you already enjoyed)?

Key Concepts and Definitions

- Health-Focused Local Data Ecosystem
- Structural Racism
- Equity
- Anti-Racism
- Justice
- Community Power Building

Data Systems → Data Ecosystems

- Anti-racism
- Equity
- Justice
- Community Power

Modernized Anti-Racist Data Ecosystems (MADE) for Health Justice

Accelerate the development of health-focused local data ecosystems that center principles of anti-racism, equity, justice and community power

Applicant Teams and Award Structure

- Grants awarded:
Up to 5
- Award ceiling:
$1,000,000
- Time: Three-year project period from June 2023 – June 2026
- Teams: Minimum: non-profit (lead), 2 local government entities

MADE for Health Justice Activities

- Pursue a health equity goal
- Confront organizational and community-level structural barriers
- Connect and utilize available data sources across sectors
- Establish and formalize collaborative governance processes
- Make substantial changes to routine local government data operations and processes
- Engage in learning and training opportunities

Applicant Eligibility Criteria

- Focused on addressing racism, equity, and justice
- Community power-building expertise or partnership
- Established partnerships with local government
- Non-profit
- Based in the U.S.

Characteristics of a Strong Application

Applicant Organizations

Structural Racism

Equity

Justice

Community Power Building

Health
equity goal

Teams

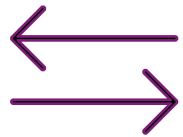

Content expertise

Data access

Previous, meaningful collaboration

Mission/priority alignment

Commitment to address structural racism

Health Equity Goal

 Dismantling structural racism

 Upstream changes

Health
equity goal

Co-create with communi

Co-Created with Community

Data ecosystem co-created with communities

Honest assessment of community trust

Health
equity goal

Co-create
with
communi

Health-Focused Local Data Ecosystem

Data ecosystem is integral to health equity goal

Influence over data operations and processes

Resource commitments from organizations

Call for Applications: MadeForHealthJustice.org

1. Background
2. The Opportunity
3. Eligibility Criteria
4. Awards & Use of Grant Funds
5. Application Phases
6. Applicant Technical Assistance
7. Expectations of Awardees
8. How to Apply
9. Extension Requests
10. Definitions
11. Resources
12. Characteristics of Strong Applications, Application Scoring Criteria
13. Key Dates
14. Direction

Applications Are Now Open
<http://madeforhealthjustice.org/>

Phase 1 Applications Due: August 31, 2022, 11:59 PM Eastern

Questions?

Thank You!

Next Session: Tuesday, July 12 @ 12pm ET

Share additional questions with us at info@madeforhealthjustice.org