

Contents

Foreword xiii
Acknowledgments xvii
Contributors xix

SECTION I

Introduction

- 1 Why a Practical Playbook about Working Together to Improve Maternal Health? 3
Alisahah Jackson, Dorothy Cilenti, Lindsey Yates, Sarah Verbiest, J. Lloyd Michener, and Natalie D. Hernandez
- 2 Promoting Federal Partnerships for Effective Program Implementation 9
Clara E. Busse, Sandra J. Lloyd, Ashley Wilkes, and Catherine J. Vladutiu
- 3 How Academic Centers Can Accelerate Partnerships and Progress in Maternal Health 19
Alison M. Stuebe
- 4 Transformational Maternal and Child Health through Expanded Healthcare Coordination and Community Engagement 37
Ahmed V. Calvo, Lyndsey Stadtmueller, Anita Isama, Erica O'Neill, and Mark Loafman
- 5 Improving Maternal and Child Health Outcomes: An Opportunity for Expanded Primary Healthcare Teams 47
Mark Loafman, Kenya Thomas-Allen, Anita Isama, and Ahmed V. Calvo
- 6 It's Not a Flip of the Switch: One Healthcare System's Collaborative Approach to Engaging External Partners to Support the Maternity Journey 57
Brisa Urquieta de Hernandez, Christine Brocato, Manoja Ratnayake Lecamwasam, and Anuradhika Anuradhika

SECTION IICollaboration

- 7 Collaborations to Improve Maternal Health 73
Dorothy Cilenti and Ruth S. Buzi
- 8 Extending the Reach of Maternal Health Practice into New Zones of Transformation with the Framework for Aligning Sectors 77
Daniel Lanford, Karen Minyard, Leigh Alderman, Japera Hemming, Christopher Parker, and Tanisa Foxworth Adimu
- 9 An Approach for Whole-Person Health: Oral Healthcare Integration for Improved Maternal Outcomes 93
Timothy L. Ricks and Zachary A. Brian
- 10 What It Really Takes to Succeed: Practical Tips for Maternal Health Collaboration 107
Piia Hanson and Kimberly Sherman
- 11 Bringing Together Clinical and Community Partners for Better Patient Care: Bootheel Perinatal Network 119
Barbara Gleason, Rebecca Burger, Morgan Nesselrodt, Susan Kendig, and Tanisa Foxworth Adimu
- 12 A Community Approach to Addressing Inequities in Maternal Health 133
Deidre McDaniel, Valerie Newsome Garcia, Karen Chustz, Saanie Sulley, Deborah Frazier, and Haywood Brown
- 13 The Broward Healthy Start Program: Cross-Sector Collaboration—Improving Pregnancy Outcomes and Birth Equity Using a Collective-Impact Framework 139
Marci Ronik, Monica Figueroa King, Sharetta Remikie, and Roneé Wilson
- 14 Impacting Maternal and Prenatal Care Together: A Harris County/Houston Collaborative 153
June Hanke, Jamie Freeny, and Ruth S. Buzi

15	Activating Our Village in Los Angeles County: Birth Equity and Black Families	165
	Brandi Sims Desjolais, Melissa Franklin, Helen O'Connor, Kaci Patterson, Sonya Young Aadam, Deborah Allen, Adjoa Jones, and Sylvia Swilley

SECTION III

Equity

16	Centering Equity: Systemic Racism and Social Determinants of Maternal Health	187
	Natalie D. Hernandez and Tameron A. Johnson
17	Historical Context Matters: Structural Racism, Maternal Health, and Reproductive Justice	191
	Christine M. Velez and Maria Mercedes Ávila
18	Equity and Systemic Racism	201
	Jonathan Webb
19	Introduction to Maternal Health Equity: A Consensus-Driven Definition and Research Priorities	213
	Elizabeth A. Mosley
20	Redesigning Systems with Black Women to Improve Maternal Health in Atlanta	227
	Jemea Dorsey and Kaprice Welsh
21	Doulas and Incarcerated Populations	237
	Crystal Hayes and Marisa Pizii
22	Environmental Impacts on Maternal Health	247
	Michele Okoh
23	Reimagining Prenatal Care: Designing a Justice-Conscious Approach to Reproductive Health, Pregnancy, and Early Parenthood	259
	Keegan D. Warren and Daphne McGee

SECTION IV

Data

24	Using and Improving Maternal Health Data to Achieve Equity	273
	Lindsey Yates

25	Democratizing Data: Understanding the Challenges and Opportunities for Community-Based Utilization of Maternal Mortality Data and Maternal Health Interventions	277
	Athena Cross and Pam Silberman
26	Decolonizing Maternal Health Research: An Introduction to Indigenous Research Methods and a Decolonial Framework for Indigenous Maternal Health Research	289
	Alayah Johnson-Jennings
27	Garbage In, Garbage Out: Examining How Maternal Health Data Tools Misuse Race	301
	Marie V. Plaisime
28	Maternal Health and Gathering Evidence of Structural Racism	309
	Lauri Andress
29	Using Narrative Medicine and Longitudinal Qualitative Research to Examine Maternal Health Outcomes	319
	Burcu Bozkurt
30	Culturally Responsive Evaluation	327
	Kimberley Broomfield-Massey, Rakiyah Anderson, Calondra Tibbs, and Christine Tucker

SECTION V

Innovations

31	Innovations to Improve Maternal Health	345
	Sarah Verbiest and Monica Beltran
32	Respectful Care and Reproductive Justice as Foundations for Maternal Health Innovation	349
	Aja Clark, Phoebe Wescott, Amy Ushry, Kiara Cruz, Christie Allen, and Inas-Khalidah Mahdi
33	Women’s Health Before, Between, Beyond, and Regardless of Pregnancy	363
	Sarah Verbiest, Suzanne Woodward, and Lindsey Yates

34	Innovation in Systems of Postpartum Care	379
	Kimberly D. Harper, Nkechi U. Charles, Amelia N. Gibson, and Kristin P. Tully
35	The Integral Role of Community-Based Doulas in Supporting Birth Equity	391
	Twylla Dillion and Zainab Sulaiman
36	From Grassroots to Telecommunication Innovation: Bridging the Gap in Perinatal Mental Health	405
	Chris Raines and Wendy Davis
37	Using a Learning Community Model to Address Substance Misuse and Co-Occurring Mental Health Challenges among MCH Populations	415
	Sanaa Akbarali, Ramya Dronamraju, Katrin Patterson, Ellen Pliska, and Christine Mackie
38	Innovations in Virtual Care	427
	Leslie deRosset, Halle Neeley, and Aunchalee Palmquist

SECTION VI

Systems and Scalability

39	Scaling Up and Sustaining Improvements in Maternal Health Equity	447
	J. Lloyd Michener
40	The Role of the Maternal and Child Health Bureau in Supporting States and Communities to Advance Maternal Health Equity	451
	Michael D. Warren, Kathy K. Best, Erin Patton, and Belinda Pettiford
41	Driving Access, Health Equity, and Innovation in Maternal Healthcare through Medicaid	463
	Jessica C. Smith, Emily Heberlein, Angela Snyder, and Karen Minyard
42	Role of Academic Health Systems in Improving and Sustaining Maternal Health	477
	Olufunmilayo Makinde Chinekezi, Karey M. Sutton, Crista E. Johnson-Agbakwu, and Yhenneko J. Taylor

43	Building a Maternal Health Workforce to Advance Equity, Partnerships, and Healthy Communities	491
	Amy J. Mullenix and M. Kathryn Menard
44	The Role of the Family Physician in Pregnancy Care: Striving for Birth Equity and Reducing Maternal Morbidity and Mortality	513
	Julie K. Wood
45	Employing Policy and Advocacy for Sustainable Reduction of Maternal Mortality and Maternal Health Inequities	523
	Anna Khefets, Maria Gabriela Ruiz, Keri Carvalho, Candace Stewart, and Ndidiamaka Amutah-Onukagha
46	Sustainability and Finance: The Role of State and Territorial Health Agencies	539
	Ellen Pliska, Britta Cedergren, Kristin Sullivan, Melissa Touma, Karl Ensign, Sowmya Kuruganti, Deborah Backman, Alex Wheatley, Heather Pangelinan, Marijane Carey, Shannon Vance, and Sanaa Akbarali
47	How State-Based Foundations Can Leverage Collaboration to Improve Maternal Health: A Case Study from California	555
	Dana G. Smith and Stephanie S. Teleki
48	The Role of the Area Health Education Center in Improving Maternal Health	567
	Adam J. Zolotor, Jill M. Forcina, Tara Owens Shuler, and Hugh H. Tilson, Jr.
49	The Role of Local Health Departments in Women’s Health and the Opportunity to Improve Rural Maternal Health Outcomes	579
	Lisa Macon Harrison and Abigail Kenney

SECTION VII

Conclusion

50	The Journey Forward	593
	Dorothy Cilenti, Alisahah Jackson, Natalie D. Hernandez, Lindsey Yates, Sarah Verbiest, and J. Lloyd Michener

Index	595
--------------	------------